

Public Relations Intern

Summer 2018

An important objective of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce is to team with local businesses, chambers and communities, state officials and partners in higher-education to build the nation's best workforce and ensure employers have the talent they need to stay competitive. We believe strategies that link education and workforce development in a seamless system and the embedding of skills-based learning into academic instruction are vital to that objective. As the state's largest advocate of businesses of all sizes and across all industry sectors, the Georgia Chamber represents a unified voice and serves as the state's champion for the implementation and promotion of public policies for residents and businesses alike.

Currently, we are offering a learning experience for a course credit internship in Public Relations and Communications to assist the External Affairs team and the overall organization in expanding awareness, increasing visibility, growing membership and achieving business advocacy goals through effective event promotion and execution. The ideal candidate should be full of creative ideas and eager to contribute on a large scale. The intern will gain insight into the inner workings and aspects of the public relations field, provide concrete deliverables and learn from top to bottom.
