U.S. Senator Tim Scott to Join Senior U.S. Senator David Perdue at the Georgia Chamber Congressional Luncheon on August 11

Atlanta, GA (August 7, 2020) – The Georgia Chamber and senior U.S. Senator David Perdue announce that U.S. Senator Tim Scott will join the lineup of speakers at next Tuesday’s all-virtual Congressional Luncheon. Guest speakers for the luncheon will engage in a wide-ranging discussion on resiliency and recovery of the economy at the federal level.

“We are grateful to have such a strong group of leaders willing to focus on the critical issues essential to a national recovery following the COVID-19 pandemic,” said Chris Clark, President & CEO of the Georgia Chamber. “Having Senator Scott with us will enhance an already strong line-up of speakers for this program and we are excited to hear from him at next week’s event.”

In addition to U.S. Senators Perdue and Scott, Congressmen Sanford D. Bishop and Drew Ferguson will also engage in dialogue around steps needed for a more resilient economic future. The 2020 Congressional Luncheon will be broadcast virtually on Tuesday, August 11, 2020 at 11:30AM. To get your ticket and access to the program, please go to <https://www.gachamber.com/events/congressional-luncheon-2020/>.

The Chamber’s next virtual event will be the Annual D.C. Fly-In on September 23. Registration is open for that program at gachamber.com/events.
