

Government Affairs Internship: 2024 Legislative Session

The Georgia Chamber of Commerce is Georgia's largest nonpartisan business advocacy organization. Our focus is on keeping, growing and creating new jobs as well as advancing economic development opportunities in our state. We have an aggressive, proactive approach to state policy issues, and we transcend regional boundaries to create a state-wide network of business leaders working to help Georgia's economy thrive.

Currently, we are offering a learning experience for four internships in the Public Affairs Department. Interns will assist the government affairs team at the Georgia Capitol during the 2023 Legislative Session. Interns will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in state lobbying efforts and gain knowledge of key stakeholders and issues of importance in the state of Georgia.
